

South Side

By Lynne Alessio

Inspired by what they learned this past summer at Anytown, an interracial camp, Cindy Dunham, club co-ordinator, and Michele Chiappetta, commissioner of public relations, devised and began a human relations program at South High.

The purpose of the program is to provide the opportunity for people in the South High area to hear and meet people of different races and economic status, to become acquainted with their problems, and realize that these may be our problems in the future.

Speeches by authorities on various topics will be held on and off throughout this semester on the campus. Meetings are flexible, sometimes after school, and at night when a speaker is to be present.

Voting for the Top 15 candidates for Homecoming Queen was held Wednesday. These girls are: Sue Anderson, Penny Anson, Roberta Ayala, Michele Chiappetta, Lynn Crosby, Robin Cummins, Cathy Giorinelli, Carlo Huyessan, Laura Maltby, Gayle Manning, Karen Matsubi, Kathy Panovich, Sara Sanchez, and Elena Sainz.

Each girl will be introduced at an assembly next Friday and that day the entire school will vote on the Top five. These five girls and the two foreign exchange students will comprise the Royal Court Nov. 8. The queen will not be announced that night.

Teen Dance

A Halloween teen dance is the current project of the Teen Club at Normandale Recreation Center, 22400 S. Halldale Ave. The dance will feature a live band.

Any teenager between the ages of 13 and 17 may attend the Teen Club meetings every Monday night from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Night With Fredericks' Event Slated Thursday

"A Night With Fred Fredericks," a fund-raising party on behalf of the Republican candidate in the 67th Assembly District, has been planned for next Thursday evening.

The party will be held at the Western Avenue Golf Course clubhouse, 12009 S. Western Ave., beginning at 7:30 p.m. A $5 donation has been asked.

"Ticket sales this week have exceeded the 500 mark, with more reservations coming in daily," Doris Stamm and Lucille Ivy, co-chairmen, said.

AMONG HONORED guests at the party will be Robert Monagan, Republican leader in the State Assembly, and Gordon Smith, former state finance director.

Public officials from communities in the 67th Assembly District, along with civic and business leaders are expected to attend the party. The public also is invited.

Women of Moose Slate

A rummage sale will be conducted Saturday at the Moose Home, 1744 W. Carson St., from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The announcement by Mrs. June Wilson, Senior Regent of Torrance Chapter 44, Women Of The Moose, stated that the event would be staged by the publicity committee with Mrs. James D. McCune, chairman, in charge.

AL APODACA and his band, along with a second group, will provide music for dancing. Other entertainment acts will be presented and refreshments will be served.

Tickets may be obtained at the Fredericks for Assembly Headquarters, 15529 S. Normandie Ave., Gardena or at the door that evening.

"We won't have any speeches that night, just lots of fun," Fredericks commented. "Everyone is welcome."

Serra High Student Wins Prize

M. Dana Gioia, a 17-year-old high school student of Hawthorne, has been named top winner in the California Real Estate Association's annual essay contest.

He entered the contest last spring while in the 11th grade at Serra High School, where he is now in his last year. He received a $500 scholarship award and a trophy during the CREA's 64th annual convention in San Francisco.
